

WHAT THE HELL HAPPENED?

Well? What happened? When did America turn into a huge collection of sissies, begging for our rights to be repealed for our “protection”? That’s not America! That’s China, or North Korea. What the hell are we doing?

So far, we’ve pretty much tossed away our entire Bill of Rights, along with most of the rest of the U.S. Constitution. Warrantless wiretaps, no-knock warrants, a bag full of useless wars that not even the president can explain properly, torture, suspension of habeus corpus... the list goes on and on.

Don’t mind that grinding noise, America... That’s just George Washington grinding his wooden choppers in his grave.

And don’t even think of blaming your government, people. Because, hey, who the hell elected them? Who stood by while “both” parties stripped away our sacred liberties? Who?

That’s right. It was you, Bubba. Shame on you.

Shame on you for pissing on the graves of our founding fathers.

Shame on you for wanting to be slaves.

And now you are finally getting the government you deserve.

Or kill me.
